2026 PMRC | Registration is Now Open!

PMRA  Posted on 11/21/2025

The School of Public Affairs at American University invites you to register for the Public Management Research Conference (PMRC 2026) that takes place June 4-6, 2026, with pre-conference workshops on June 3.

To provide better support to the global community, the Conference Committee has opened registration earlier than usual. This decision was made to allow international participants ample time to finalize travel arrangements and complete necessary steps, such as applying for a visa, well in advance of the conference dates.

All prospective attendees are encouraged to register as soon as possible.

UPDATE: The proposal review process is currently underway (with sincere gratitude to the 49 reviewers) and decisions will be rolled out as soon as possible.

Thank you for being part of #PMRC2026!

Early-bird
Registration Ends:
April 3, 2026
Online Registration
Ends: May 23, 2026

Public Administration Education Survey - Endorsed by the Journal of Public Affairs Education

We invite all full- and part-time instructors of public administration and policy studies in the U.S. to complete a brief (15-minute) survey by December 15, 2025. The survey explores how democratic standards are addressed in teaching and accreditation, and whether course content is being censored or self-censored. Responses are confidential and only aggregated results will be shared to inform future workshops. The study has IRB approval and is endorsed by the Journal of Public Affairs Education. Questions? Contact Christopher Koliba at ckoliba@ku.edu.

Deadline:
December 15, 2025

Call for Papers | Special Issue on Accounting for What Matters

Call for Papers  Posted on 10/3/2025

Public sector organizations are navigating economic instability, climate crises, inequities, and political pressures—often forced to balance financial sustainability with the equally vital goals of social sustainability and equity. This special issue invites research that rethinks public sector accounting and accountability not only as tools for fiscal management but also as frameworks that foster inclusion, fairness, resilience, and long-term public value.

We welcome conceptual, empirical, and comparative studies addressing how accounting can better embed social sustainability, manage value trade-offs, strengthen organizational resilience, and challenge existing power dynamics. Case studies, longitudinal analyses, and critical perspectives across diverse contexts (healthcare, education, social services, etc.) are encouraged.

Deadline:
June 30, 2026

Call for Papers | JBPA on Null Results

Call for Papers  Posted on 9/12/2025

The Journal of Behavioral Public Administration (JBPA) seeks papers for a special issue on null results. Null results are important for scientific progress and for policy making. But null results require nuanced consideration to be informative—null results caused by a small sample size or measurement error may hide true (non-zero and substantively meaningful) effects. JBPA welcomes null results Public Administration papers, especially those utilizing pre-hoc power analysis, pre-registration, experimental manipulation checks, Bayesian t-tests/Bayes factors, TOST procedures or simulated confidence intervals to rule out large effect, and other nuanced and convincing methods. Full research papers will be evaluated on an ongoing basis.

Deadline:
July 31, 2026
